SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THANKSGIVING DAY will be doubly delightful to Richmond society, because of the fact that the Richmond Alumni Association of the University of Virginia, has engaged the entire Bijou Theatre for the evening of Thanksgiving and will have as its guests the students of the University of North Carolina and the University of Virginia, to witness the performance of "The Man on the Box."

The theatre and stage will be decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums, with the dark blue and orange, and the pale blue and white. The colors of the opposing teams, and with the pennants of the two universities.

The members of the football teams, the debutantes and other young girls attending the Thanksgiving german in Masonic Temple, under the direction of the Misses Binford, will occupy boxes

To have a clear skin: Exercise moderately. Eat wholesome food. Breathe fresh air. Use Ivory Soap and clear, cool water.

What the skin needs is something that will clean but will not harm it.

Pure soap will do this; and Ivory Soap is pure. Ivory Soap 99 1/100 Per Cent. Pure.

and special seats reserved for them by the committee of arrangements. The debutantes who will go from the Bijou to take part in the opening figure of the Thanksgiving german will be: Misses Elsie Ingram, Susie McGuire, Barbara Trigg, Frances Myers, Helen Adams, Bertie Hamilton, Edith Taylor, Ella Buck, Lora Rump, Mary Taylor, Peachy Fleet, Martha Martin, Josephine Elliott, Claire Smith, Fanny Miller, Julia Putney, Stella Moore, Eleanor Lindsey, Grace Neal, Virginia Watkins, Virginia Whiteley, Anne Keith Royall, Dudley Powers, Helen Tanner and Mary Crump.

Between the acts pictures of the players will be thrown on the curtain, and the college songs of the universities will be sung with zest and animation. The evening will terminate with wit and merriment, and the spirit of good fellowship will lend it flavor. The Richmond alumni association, however, nothing shall be left undone for the pleasure of their North Carolina and Virginia visitors, and the presence at the Bijou of ladies in elegant evening attire, of the university men and ball players and of the alumni, full of the cordial spirit of welcome and hospitality will render the scene both beautiful and brilliant.

The committee of arrangements includes Messrs. Charles Whitlock, Leon Nelson, Henry Elliott, Hiram Smith, Fred Pollard, S. G. Christian, Addison Renolds, P. L. Conquest, R. A. Hanson, John A. Cutchins, R. M. Pollard, Julien Gunn and Dr. Stuart Michaux.

tracts made with the Erie and New York Central Railroad Companies. Mr. Rockefeller was shown a pooling contract for the distribution of oil-carrying between different railroads, fixing rates on refined and crude oil, and containing a provision for "drawbacks" to rebates for certain shipments to seaboard. The witness said the contract was drawn to put the different refining points on a parallel.

"The effect of this agreement was that it would cost the man in Cleveland and no more to ship refined oil to seaboard than a shipment made from any other point. It also assured refiners that the same rates for shipment would be alike on all lines," said Mr. Rockefeller.

Careful of His Stomach.
An interesting sidelight on Mr. Rockefeller's presence at the hearing today was his chat with the reporters during an intermission about his health. He said:

"When I was a young man, I used to work day and night, but I never forgot that I had a stomach. You can work long hours if you are careful about what you eat. I was most careful about what I put into my stomach, and today I have cause to be very grateful for it. I never felt in better health than today, as a result of rigidly adhering to a policy of a careful diet when I was a boy. I advise any one who wants to keep his health to do the same. Then, when you young men get to be seventy years old, you will be able to keep up your work."

"I never felt better in my life than I do now. For the last twenty years I have kept out of doors as much as possible, and to that practice, coupled with a careful diet, I attribute my excellent health."

Young Man Found Dead.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] 19.—DURHAM, N. C., November 19.—It was reported here today that Albert Dunnehan, twenty-two years old, son of James Dunnehan, of this county, was found dead in the woods of Wake county, not far from the Durham line. It is not clear at this time whether was a natural death or foul play. Relatives of the family have gone there to investigate.

Conference in Session.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] 19.—SALISBURY, N. C., November 19.—The Northern Conference of the North Carolina Lutheran Synod convened in annual session today at Bethel, Rowan county, with a representative number of ministers and laymen in attendance. There are a number of important speakers on the program, which will close Saturday with a Sunday-school normal, conducted by Mrs. T. E. Johnston and others from Salisbury.

Cupid On Vacation.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] 19.—LYNCHBURG, Va., November 19.—Whether it is the lack of "confidence" or not, the court officials do not undertake to explain, there has been a falling off of more than half a hundred in the number of marriage licenses issued here this year. Last year at this time Clerk Davis had issued 329 licenses, but now the record for this year is 236. It is more than probable that the record for the year will be more than fifty below that of 1907.
